

NEWS AND VIEWS . . .

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

After writing last week on the need for a better airport we received the following letter from Frank W. Calhoun, one of our representatives to Austin, offering any help that he might be able to provide.

Dear Bob:

Inotewith interest your editorial in this week's Hamlin Herald concerning the need for an airport in Hamlin. Of course, the need for such an airport would have to be determined by the people of Hamlin, but if such determination is made please do not hesitate to call on me for assistance in securing a grant from the Texas Aeronautics Commission.

As you know, I was able to assist the City of Stamford in securing their grant and I would be most happy to render any possible assistance to the City of Hamlin.

Best personal regards.

Sincerely,

Frank W. Calhoun

And still on the matter of a better airport, we were impressed with the number of people here who went out of their way to express an interest in a good airport for Hamlin. Several wanted to know how to get something started and unfortunately we were not able to offer too much help in this direction since we are not sure just how to get something started.

We sometimes have our doubts about committees but maybe this is the only answer to starting anything.

If bumper stickers are any indication of how West Texas will go in the election this year one would have to assume that George Wallace will win by a landslide, with Richard Nixon a poor second and Hubert Humphrey failing to do any good at all.

This Wallace strength is rather strange from a rational point of view since it is doubtful that he can win, and even more doubtful if he could govern, if elected, since our whole government is built around the two-party system.

We would be much more impressed with Wallace if he had waded into the thick of the battle within the Democratic Party instead of starting his own party.

Currently the political thinking seems to be that for Wallace to have any influence in the electoral college voting, barring a major upset with him receiving enough electoral votes to win, is for Humphrey to run a better race than he is currently running.

This is based on the fact that Wallace does not have much of a chance if the election goes into the House of Representatives since practically all members are certain to be Democrats or Republicans.

But, if Wallace holds a balance of power in electoral votes, he may be able to wring certain concessions from the man whom he would be able to throw a decisive bloc of votes.

But even this would be of limited value since once a President takes office Wallace would no longer have any method or power with which to act in seeing that agreements made are kept.

But maybe even if Wallace fails to gain any concessions he will have accomplished what his backers are seeking. Most of his support seems to come from those that are simply protesting the direction our government seems to be headed and maybe this strong third-party vote will at least make the two parties realize that there are a lot of people around that are not being heard. This would especially seem to be the case with the Democratic Party which seems to be moving farther to the left each year.

It is excusable to get tired when you work hard but the trouble with the average person is a tendency to get tired before working.

Pipers to Meet Winters Friday

The Pied Pipers will be trying to rebound from their opening loss in District 7-AA play last Friday when they journey to Winters Friday night. The Blizzards are 1-0 in district play with a 19-6 win over Anson and are 2-2 for the season. The Pipers are also 2-2 for the season, but are 0-1 in District with their 27-7 loss to Merkel.

The Blizzards were the top rated team in the district in the pre-season polls but then got off to a slow start with two losses. Now with two wins behind them they are being considered again as a possible power in the district.

After the first week of action in 7-AA, Stamford emerged in the favorite spot with a win over previously unbeaten Haskell. Ballinger won over Coleman to round out the first week's action. This week the winners meet the losers with Anson vying with Ballinger, Merkel meeting Haskell and Stamford and Coleman completing the schedule.

Coach Joe Youngblood told the Booster Club Monday that the biggest problem facing the Pipers, who are short on experience, is to eliminate the costly mistakes that they have made the past two weeks.

He reported that both Mike Brown and Jerry Braley will be out of action this week. Braley is still nursing a bad knee and Brown hurt his back early in the second half. Mike Young, who hurt his knee in the game Friday was working out Monday and should be ready this week.

The Blizzards operate from an unbalanced line with a tight T in the backfield, similar to the Denver City T.

They have good overall backfield speed and are smaller than the usual Winters team. They scored all three of their touchdowns against Anson Friday on long passes.

Annual Punt, Pass and Kick Contest Set At Football Field

The Punt, Pass and Kick competition will be held here Saturday at Piper Stadium with the Hamlin Jaycees in charge.

The annual contest, sponsored by Connally Ford Sales, will offer trophies for first, second and third places in six divisions.

Boys from ages eight through thirteen will be eligible to compete. Charles Connally, local Ford Motor Co. owner, said that a change had been made this year and boys are eligible, even if they are participating in sports at school.

Jimmy Hale, Jaycee chairman, said that there will be some seven year old boys who will be eligible to enter. He said, "If a boy now seven will be eight before January 5, 1969, he may participate in the eight year old division. The January 5 date is used to determine what age bracket the boy will compete, if he has a birthday before that date.

Boys must register at Connally Ford Sales by 5 p.m. Friday, and be accompanied by a parent.

Scotty Knox will assist Hale with the contest.

Local winners will compete at the zone competition Oct. 19.

A division will be for each of the following age groups: eight, nine, 10, 11, 12 and 13. Each boy will be allowed only one attempt at punting, passing and kicking from a tee. Distance and accuracy will determine the winner in each age group. The total points of the three events will decide the age group winners.

The public is invited to watch the event. There is no admission fee.

County Judge Explains Juvenile Law to P-TA Meeting Thursday

Juvenile Judge Leon Thurman of Anson described the process of law with regard to the juvenile at the Thursday afternoon meeting of the Hamlin Elementary Parent-Teachers Association.

He noted that a new law now calls for a record of a juvenile offense to be recorded in the office of the juvenile judge.

When a juvenile is brought in for an offense, he meets with his parents and the judge. No other party is present unless it might be a law enforcement officer.

He commended the local Police Chief, Bryan Wasson, for his work with the youth and expressed that it was evident he was interested in the youth and their problems.

He stressed that parents should know where their children are and not just think they know. Also he pointed out that parents should be aware of their children when they come home in the evenings.

The third grade presented the entertainment.

Mrs. Bill Davis, president, presided and gave the thought for the month.

We would like to have it to pass along.

AUSTIN, — Drinking drivers run a new risk of being nabbed — through a tell-tale scientific breath analysis device going into use in Texas.

Col. Wilson E. (Pat) Speir, Department of Public Safety Director, announced that 90 new "breathalyzers" have been purchased by the DPS and 450 highway patrolmen trained to operate them. Device will test a suspect's breath to determine the percentage of alcohol in the bloodstream.

Instruments, simple to operate and read, will be placed in 80 of the state's most-populous counties, at fixed locations and used under strictly-controlled scientific conditions.

Suspects who consent to the test will blow into a tube and the percentage of alcohol in their blood will register on indicators. About 15 minutes' waiting time is allowed before testing begins and actual test takes only five minutes. Experts report a direct relationship between alcohol content in blood and breath.

Drinking, according to DPS statistics, figures in 40 to 50 per cent of Texas' traffic deaths — perhaps more than 1,600 of last year's 3,367 highway fatalities. Over the nation, use of alcohol leads to annual traffic death toll of 25,000 and 800,000 vehicle accidents — the largest single factor in fatal crashes.

A driver with 0.15 per cent blood alcohol content by weight is 25 times more likely to be involved in a wreck than a non-drinking driver. Average person achieves that danger point after consuming five ounces of 100 proof alcohol an hour without eating, DPS chemists figure. Consumption leading to intoxication, of course, varies with weight, time between drinks and amount of food eaten.

Tests will "clear" drivers suspected of being drunk who are actually driving erratically due to illness or other reasons.

"It is hoped the DPS breathalyzer project will hit hard at the problem and help reduce the traffic death rate in Texas," Colonel Speir said.

COURTS SPEAK — Tragedies, race horses and wild elephants provided grist for the State Supreme Court's mill as it ground out more than 130 cases following a summer recess. High court decided that:

A Houston widow whose husband was killed by mistake while entering the wrong house cannot collect accidental death benefits.

Damage suit filed by a widow following the death of her husband in an auto wreck can be maintained although it did not meet the filing deadline.

Damage award payable to the estate of a Bowie County boy run over by a car should be upheld.

Employee of a Waco department store is entitled to $50,000 damages due to an escalator accident.

Rio Grande Valley circus owner can collect damages from an animal dealer who delivered him a wild female elephant instead of a tame one as ordered.

The race horse, Benedicte, who won $90,000, was not covered by a $5,000 Lloyds of London insurance policy when he died.

A Harris County mother who went to India to study Yoga should not regain custody of her two sons from their grandparents who took them in after a 1963 divorce.

A lower court verdict ordering Pinehurst to pay a water company $29,000 under a contract should be reversed.

A Henderson County real estate man's claim that he was denied proper commission on the sale of a ranch for a Boy Scout camp is entitled to review.

City of Roma's claim to a share of revenues from the border toll bridge operated by Starr County should be retried.

BLUE-LAW TEST — State Supreme Court has agreed to hear an appeal from local officials stymied in their attempts to enforce the state's newest and most far-reaching Blue Law.

Article 286a of the Penal Code prohibits the sale of certain listed items — covering just about everything — on consecutive Saturdays and Sundays, which requires retailers to choose between the two days.

However, Gibson's Discount Center of Midland got around it by leasing its store and stock to another corporation.

Midland County 142nd District Court agreed with Gibson's that the Blue Law violates the state and national constitutions, and the local officials appealed. The case is set for hearing before the high court on November 6.

SALES TAX GOES UP — Texans started shelling out another penny for state sales taxes on October 2. That made it three per cent statewide — and four per cent in those cities which levy local option sales taxes.

Extra one per cent for the state was voted by the Legislature in special session last June. Session also approved a one-per-cent jump in car sales tax and a 50 cent hike in the franchise tax. Revenue estimates are about $175 million in new state revenue during the next 11 months. Legislature in 1969 may have to raise $300 million or more in additional money.

APPOINTMENTS — House Speaker Ben Barnes appointed the five public members to the Governor's Committee on Physical Fitness, which was created by the Legislature in June to study the problem and make recommendations. Members are: Tom Stohlhandske, San Antonio attorney and former All-American football player at UT; Mrs. Joe Long of Austin, holder of a doctorate in physical education; Dr. Stanley Burnham, physical-education professor at UT-Austin; Dr. Kenneth Cooper, U. S. Air Force Medical Corps major at San Antonio; and Dr. Jay Stanford, professor of internal medicine at the UT Southwestern Medical School at Dallas.

BILINGUAL EDUCATION — Texas Education Agency is utilizing the experience of six visiting teachers from Mexico to improve the bilingual education program it administers. Teachers, all from Nuevo Leon, will spend the current school year in Texas teaching Spanish to already Spanish-speaking children in the preschool and elementary grades.

"This program," a TEA official said, "is an attempt to enhance our bilingual teaching and to involve ourselves in international programs. Also, we want to see how well Mexican — national teachers can work in our public schools."

HOSPITAL PLAN OPEN TO STUDY — New 1969 state plan for construction and modernization of hospitals and related medical facilities now is available for public review at State Department of Health Office.

Plan is the basic document which the State Board of Health uses to make its recommendations for federal Hill-Burton grants.

Sixty-nine applications are applying for $28,825,466 under the federal matching fund program for hospital aid next year.

ROLLING PLAINS COTTON GROWERS INC.

Two rather significant events took place last week at meetings in Dallas of Texas Cotton Producer Association Organizations, according to Charles G. Bragg, executive vice president of the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

"For the first time in recent history of Texas agriculture the head of Texas Farm Bureau, Sidney Dean, and the head of Texas Farmers Union, Jay Naman, sat in on discussions of problems facing cotton producers. Also at the two day meeting, RPCG was able to effect the election of four of its member producers to national cotton industry boards, bringing to seven the number of RPCG members filling places of responsibility in the nation's agriculture," Bragg pointed out.

First consideration at the meeting was given to the kind of cotton program for 1969 that Texas producers could agree on and recommend to the Secretary of Agriculture.

The secretary has little discretion as to the kind of cotton program in 1969, since it is established by the Farm Act. The cotton men reviewed his alternatives and decided on recommendations to be made to the secretary.

The various units in TACPO agreed to call area meetings.

Elmer Boedeker Re-Elected Zone 5 District Supervisor

Elmer Boedeker was re-elected supervisor of Zone 5, California Creek Soil and Water Conservation District, at a meeting held in Sagerton on October 1. Boedeker, a farmer in the Sagerton community, has completed one five-year term as a district official.

Other members of the District's Board of Supervisors are: Birger Haterius, Avoca, chairman and Zone 2 supervisor; John R. Brown, Jr., Noinda, secretary and Zone 3 supervisor; J. Olin Ameron, Hamlin, Zone 3; and Gene Overton, Paint Creek, Zone 1.

B. Robbins, Mrs. Linda Chandler and Louise Thompson, all of Oklahoma, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Thompson Sr. of Sentinel, Okla.

You say you'd like a few suggestions on how to get more out of your telephone service?

Here are five tips to help make your every "hello" a real good buy:

1. Whenever you're moving to another town within the Bell System, let us arrange for your phone service before you move. If you know the address of your new home, we can make arrangements in advance so you'll have the exact service you want in your new home. We'll also refer calls from your old phone to your new number if you like. Just call the business office and ask about our Easy Move Plan. There's no extra charge.

2. Speaking of moving, we hope you realize that wherever you move in the Bell System, there is no color charge for the phones at your new address if you had color phones at your old address.

3. Ever wonder what to do when you get a wrong number on a Long Distance call? Just hang up, dial "0" for "Operator," and tell her what happened. She'll see that you're not charged for the call.

4. And if you ever lose your dime in an out-of-order pay telephone, just go to a working phone and report it to the Operator. She'll arrange to have your dime mailed to you. Also, if you give her the number of the out-of-order phone, we'll get it fixed right away.

5. Long Distance interstate rates are lower all day Saturday and Sunday, and after 7 p.m. each weekday. You can also save money if you call by number. A station-to-station Long Distance call costs about one-third less than a person-to-person call.

At Southwestern Bell, our goal is to help you get the very best telephone service. We want your every "hello" to be a real good buy.

(Files for fifty years ago missing)

On and after Nov. 2, 1917, all letters mailed to another office will have to be prepaid at the rate of 3 cents per oz. or fraction thereof. All cards should bear 2 cents. This means that there will be no more 1 cent drop letters. Nothing has been received at the P. O. relative to the increase of parcel post matter or circulars.

The United Charities met at Methodist Church Sat. Oct. 6th. Treasurer reported $14.40 paid out for groceries for deserving needy the past month and $34.40 in the treasury at present.

The chairman reported having met with encouragement in the membership and clothing collected. The membership now standing at 89.

If you have one or more garments outgrown or that you have no use for, report to the chairman of your district and they will be called for, also school books. You may make it possible for some child to go to school all winter by looking through your old clothing and school books.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
(October 8, 1943)

Hamlin Pied Pipers showed lots of fight last Friday night as they battled the Bulldogs from Spur, and finally eked out a six point margin of victory over a hard hitting team.

Spur scored in the first two minutes of play after taking a short punt on the Hamlin 39 yard line. On the first play after receiving the ball, Ball rushed through the Hamlin line for 39 yards and a touchdown. Try for extra point failed.

The Pipers were not to be outdone and after taking the kickoff on their own 30 yardline, they steadily marched down field for a touchdown with Myers and Barnett doing the ball carrying. Barnett made the score. Try for extra point failed.

The Pipers made the deciding tally in the last quarter when they marched 59 yards when one first down after another to score. Extra point failed. Score 18-12.

Let's see what Bill Harbert says: "Well, I have not much news as usual. I received three Herald's and nine letters, which I was very glad to get. I got the picture but I don't think I look like that now. . . in the first place I am about to get baldheaded. I don't think I'll be completely bald by the time I get back." Bill says he must be somewhere near Arlie Cassle, but can't locate him without his address. Arlie is somewhere in the S. W. Pacific.

Pacific.

It is always a satisfying feeling for a home newspaper to record for the community a job well done. And what a job!

This report on Hamlin's Third War Bond drive is for historical purposes purely, plus sending to our boys, in distant lands the good news that the home folks are backing them up with their money.

Hamlin, like thousands of other American communities, has done herself grand in lending Uncle Sam a part of the cash on hand and in many cases cash that was not on hand. Hamlin community has gone over the top, totaling $312,000 making it $25,000 more than was asked for.

TEN YEARS AGO
(October 9, 1958)

Arlie Cassle of Hamlin was elected new president of the Hamlin High School Ex-Students Association at the conclusion of the annual business session last Saturday morning. He succeeds L. C. Bonds.

Other officers presented by the nominating committee headed by Mrs. Pete Bonds, and elected by the scores attending the business session held at the high school auditorium included: J. C. Turner, Jr., first vice president; Garland Preston, second vice president; Mrs. Joe Ford, secretary; Mrs. Clyde Lewis, assistant secretary; W. T. Johnson, treasurer; and Odell Murphree, reporter.

With more than 300 ex-students registered for the fourth annual gathering of ex-students, the 1958 homecoming got underway Friday afternoon.

Cotton was moving to the gins in the Hamlin territory at an increased rate this week with the advent of some needed warmer and dryer days following several weeks of misty, rainy and cool days, to give the farmers of the region a chance to get into the cotton fields in real earnest.

The inclement weather of the past several weeks had not only practically brought to a standstill the cotton harvest, but had slowed ripening of the cottonbolls and done material damage to the cotton on the stalks that was ready for harvest. The lint was stained by prolonged wet weather, hurting the looks of the staple and otherwise deteriorating the crop to the amount of thousands of dollars.

Much of the cotton crop in the region will be defoliated and gathered by mechanical pickers and strippers inasmuch as harvest has been delayed.

"Whatsoever Things"

By DONALD E. WILDMON

We Americans are stupid people. We won't admit it openly, but when one looks at the facts—just the facts—there isn't any other conclusion one can come to. For we put our emphasis on some minor thing and ignore completely a major subject.

I have before me a news release. The headlines are very small and the whole story doesn't cover more than two column inches. I didn't find it on the front page of the paper, either. It was way over in the middle of the paper. The headlines read: "DRUNK DRIVING TOLL". The item went on to say that drunken driving results in 25,000 traffic deaths each year according to the Department of Transportation. The report went on to say that alcohol is the largest single factor in highway deaths. It also stated that police records prove that drinking figures in about 800,000 accidents annually.

After reading that I went back through my files and found a couple of other news items concerning the problem. One was dated about a year earlier. It said that "excessive drinking is involved in nearly half of the 53,000 highway deaths each year, according to a government survey." Dr. William Haddon, Jr., director of the National Highway Safety Agency, told UPI that the "evidence is very clear that as far as most fatal accidents are concerned, the most common factor is excessive drinking." And, said Haddon, "Almost a flat 70% of single car fatal accidents in such places as California, New York, and various other major cities, involve substantially elevated blood alcohol levels and at least half of them meet anybody's liberal definition of intoxication."

Now, with that in mind, look at where we put the emphasis. I turn on my radio and the man says for me "not to leave my keys in my car" so that I won't cause a "good boy to go bad." I pick up my paper and it tells me the same thing. I change stations on the radio and a girl sings that if I'm out of a certain kind of beer then I'm out of beer. I pick up my newspaper again and look at the ads and it tells me that their whiskey is the kind I should drink over the holiday weekend.

At least we have begun to tell people about what smoking can do to them. How is it that we have so carefully avoided telling them of the results of alcohol? And why is it that we tell a person to take his key with him to keep a "good" boy from going bad and fail to ask that man to keep from putting his key in the ignition after drinking.

Why bother wasting space of this subject? Don't I know those who are on the opposite side have more money and power than I do? Well, I said I found two news items in my files. The other one was less than a column inch. It said Johnny, his last name isn't too important, age 9, was struck and killed by a car while riding his bike home from school. It said the driver was arrested for drunken driving. At least we don't have to worry about Johnny going bad because we left our key in the car.

We Americans are stupid people. —FIVE STAR FEATURES

GETTING OUT... the Vote

Mrs. Jones is active in all types of community work. She is active in politics at the local level. From a list of voters at her elbow she telephones to see if any local residents need the services of the various car pools. Because of this service many who could not otherwise do so, get to the polls and vote.

But more than this, Mrs. Jones is a friend and servant of God. She supports her church and its services because she knows it is the center of all that is good and worthwhile in the Community. It is a place where the souls of men are uplifted and saved.

We, ourselves, would do well to emulate Mrs. Jones. May we urge that you, also, not only vote, but help get out the vote — that you not only attend church, but support it actively with your service.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Mistakes Costly As Pipers Fall to Merkel Friday, 27-7

Two quick Merkel touchdowns Friday night put the Pipers in a hole that they were never able to overcome as they lost their opening District game to the Badgers, 27-7. The Badgers returned a Piper punt 63 yards for their first score and then came back six plays later to score again after recovering a Hamlin fumble on the Piper 33.

Three fumbles and three pass interceptions kept the Pipers with their backs to the wall as they were never able to gain field position. The Pipers were able to move the ball in Merkel territory only once during the first half as they took possession on their own 15, 19, 23, 12, 47 and 15 yard lines.

The two teams exchanged punts twice after the opening kickoff and on the second Hamlin punt Johnny Thompson fielded the ball on his 37, got in behind a wall of blockers and raced the 63 yards to paydirt. Steve Doan kicked the point after.

The Pipers fumbled on the first play following the kickoff with Merkel taking over on the 31 of Hamlin. Six plays later Thompson raced around his left end for 16 yards and the second Badger score. The extra point try failed and the Badgers led 13-0 with a minute left in the first period.

With three easy touchdowns, the Badgers put together their only sustained drive of the night in the second period as they drove 69 yards in nine plays to reach the Piper goal line. With 30 seconds left in the half, quarterback Bob Tate passed to Rodney Mashburn in the end zone for the score. Doan kicked the point after.

Merkel scored on the third play of the second half when Bill Whisenhunt intercepted a Piper pass and raced 40 yards for the score. Doan again kicked the point after.

The Pipers came back and drove down to the Merkel 29-yard line only to have a pass intercepted and returned to the 48. An exchange of fumbles and a punt ran out the third quarter.

Mid-way in the fourth quarter the Pipers put together a drive from their own 32-yard line to the Merkel 9 before losing the ball on downs back at the 18. On the Badger third down Ronnie Nelson recovered a fumble that put the Pipers back in operation on the Merkel 23.

Donnie Smith carried for two, Robert Bolden for one and then Charlie Shira connected with James Asher on a 13 yard pass to the seven. Spencer Ford carried for two, two and one to the two yard line and Shira connected with Asher in the end zone. Duane Stewart kicked the point after. Merkel ran out the clock three plays later.
